Brian O'Kane (24) is already an accomplished performer. He is an Artist Fellow of the Guildhall School of Music and Drama, having graduated from the Royal Academy of Music in Dublin in 2007, with first class honours from where he was awarded the Jacqueline Du Pre Scholarship to continue his studies in London.

The Young Musicians Programme is overseen by the well-known Concert Harpist, Jean Kelly, who is the Artistic Adviser for the programme. It will showcase emerging Irish artists and will provide an opportunity for audiences, with an interest in music of any kind, to see what these young classical performers can achieve and how they interpret classical music at its best.

The Irish Club is providing the facilities of the Club for members and non-members of Irish Heritage and The Irish Club. Advanced bookings for the restaurant is recommended, last order are taken for food at 9pm in the restaurant and 9.30 in the bar.
